

Bad Blood: The Unspeakable Truth of Theranos and Elizabeth Holmes

Bad Blood is the shocking true story of Theranos and Elizabeth Holmes, the charismatic founder who promised to revolutionize healthcare with a groundbreaking blood test technology. But behind the scenes, the company was a house of cards built on lies and deceit.

In 2014, Theranos was valued at $9 billion and Holmes was hailed as the next Steve Jobs. But within two years, the company had collapsed and Holmes was facing criminal charges. What happened? How did the world's most promising startup go so wrong so quickly?
