Synopsis

Night of Masks and Knives is a captivating historical thriller that transports readers to a world of intrigue, murder, and hidden agendas. Set against the backdrop of Venice's vibrant Carnival, a time of revelry and anonymity, the story follows Isabella, a young woman who becomes entangled in a deadly conspiracy that threatens to unravel the very fabric of the city.

As the city erupts in a symphony of masked revelers, Isabella witnesses a gruesome murder that shatters her sense of security. Determined to uncover the truth behind this sinister crime, she teams up with Nicolo, a cunning thief with a heart of gold. Together, they navigate the labyrinthine streets of Venice, dodging assassins and unraveling a web of deception that reaches the highest echelons of power.
