The Irregular at Magic High School

The Irregular at Magic High School is a Japanese light novel series written by Tsutomu Satō and illustrated by Kana Ishida. The series follows Tatsuya Shiba, a powerful magician who attends the National Magic University First Affiliated High School. Despite his immense power, Tatsuya is considered an "irregular" because he was not born with magic. Instead, he learned magic through self-study and hard work.

The Irregular at Magic High School has been adapted into an anime television series, a manga series, and a video game. The anime series is produced by Madhouse and has been airing since April 2014. The manga series is published by ASCII Media Works and has been running since July 2014. The video game is developed by Bandai Namco Games and was released in Japan in February 2015.
