What is Exotic Jerky?

Exotic jerky is simply jerky that is made from non-traditional meats. This can include anything from turkey to ostrich. Exotic jerky is often made using unique marinades and spices, which gives it a flavor that is unlike anything you've ever tasted before.

The Different Types of Exotic Jerky

There are many different types of exotic jerky available, each with its own unique flavor and texture. Some of the most popular types of exotic jerky include:

- Turkey jerky is made from lean turkey meat and is a great source of protein. It has a mild flavor that is similar to chicken jerky.
- Chicken jerky is made from chicken breast and is a good source of lean protein. It has a slightly sweet flavor that is popular with many people.
- Fish jerky is made from a variety of fish, including salmon, tuna, and cod. It is a good source of omega-3 fatty acids and has a slightly fishy flavor.
- Duck jerky is made from duck breast and has a rich, gamey flavor. It is a good source of protein and iron.
- Lamb jerky is made from lamb meat and has a slightly sweet flavor. It is a good source of protein and iron.
- Tofu jerky is made from tofu and is a good source of plant-based protein. It has a slightly bland flavor that can be easily flavored with marinades and spices.

- Ostrich jerky is made from ostrich meat and has a slightly gamey flavor. It is a good source of protein and iron.

How is Exotic Jerky Made?

Exotic jerky is made using a process that is similar to traditional jerky. The meat is first trimmed of fat and then cut into thin strips. The strips are then marinated in a mixture of spices and herbs. The marinade is what gives the jerky its unique flavor. After the meat has been marinated, it is hung up to dry. The drying process can take anywhere from a few hours to a few days, depending on the type of meat and the desired texture. Once the jerky is dry, it is ready to eat.
